

HU-BTU Third International Conference on Heritage Conservation and Site Management
"Sustainable Tourism Management for Cultural Heritage"
Cairo, 8-11 December 2015

Wolfgang Schuster (born 1951) studied architecture, urban planning, art, history and dramatics. From 1984-1989 he was assistant professor for design and building construction at the University of Arts in Berlin. Since 1992 he holds the chair for building construction and architectural design at BTU Cottbus-Senftenberg, and since 2011 he is the dean of the Faculty of Architectural Design, Civil Engineering and Urban Planning at BTU Cottbus-Senftenberg. He is also the President of the Architectural and Engineering Society (AIV) in Berlin.

