

HU-BTU Fifth International Conference on Heritage Conservation and Site Management
"Cultural Heritage and Sustainable Development: A Tourism Perspective"
Aswan, 8-11 December 2017

GIHAN MOSAAD HANALLAH

Vice Dean for Educational Affairs

Prof. of Architectural Engineering and Environmental Design

Arab Academy of Science, Technology and Maritime Transport

Alexandria – Egypt

Dr.Gihan Mosaad is currently a Professor and the Vice Dean for Educational Affairs at the Arab Academy for Science, Technology and Maritime Transport AAST. She holds a doctorate degree in Architecture since 2002 from Faculty of Fine Arts, Alexandria University with a thesis entitled “Basics for the Architectural Design of Domes and Vaults in Post Modern Architecture”.

Dr.Gihan has a long professional academic experience giving lectures and post graduate studies courses related to vernacular architecture , environmental design and the architecture of the Mediterranean cities. She is responsible for the accreditation of RIBA (Part I) and (Part II) at the Arab Academy for Science, Technology and Maritime Transport.

Dr. Gihan has written over 30 articles and papers in local and international conferences as well as published papers in international refereed journals and her main research interest evolve around environmental design, vernacular architecture and identity. Also, she is the director of projects consultants in Egypt (2000- till present) and she has a practical experience in building earth domes and vaults in different projects.

